'Move this bus stop or I will!' – ultimatum

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A MAN campaigning to have a bus stop outside his house removed has threatened to dismantle it himself after Luton Council rejected a petition over the issue.

Asif Iqbal, 33, who lives on Leagrave Road, said he is issuing the authority with a three-week ultimatum after a 525-signature petition by residents was turned down.

Mr Iqbal, who bought his property in 2006, said the stress of fighting the case contributed to him suffering a heart attack at the end of last year and that he can't access his drive because of bus users standing at the stop.

The 33-year-old began his campaign last year but during a full council meeting in April this year councillors voted against the petition.

Residents had asked for the bus stops between 180-312 Leagrave Road to be moved and a zebra crossing installed to tackle speeding.

But a report presented at the meeting noted the proposals would cost the council more than £14,000.

Mr Iqbal said the stress of being unable to access his drive had left him with 'no choice' but to threaten 'drastic action'.

He said: "I can't get bullied by the council. They are leaving me no choice and it's a route I don't want to take because they have put me in a place where I have no choice."

"There are many bus stops in Luton where people have access to their drives. We had a 500-signature petition and we are the public so they

FED UP: Mr Iqbal said he had spoken to various council officers and councillors but felt his concerns were not being addressed. He also wants the curb outside his house removed as he says it affects his heart every time he has to drive over it should listen to us.

"I have spoken to local people on the road and they are upset about the decision. I want the council to realise that they shouldn't take people for granted and that times change and bus stops move all the time."

"Each time I come home I see people on my drive and there's only so much that a guy can take. Most people are afraid of the council but I don't care what they do. Every person I meet says

'you have a big bus stop outside your house, why don't complain?'

"My doctor told me to take it easy but I am getting stressed with this bus stop. You have to take drastic action in life and I will take it down in three weeks because I want to give the council time to respond to my request."

A council spokeswoman said: "There has been a bus stop and shelter in the area for more than 30 years, before Mr Iqbal bought his properties."

"His request for the council to move the bus stop has been carefully considered and rejected by the council's complaints procedure, full council and the Local Government Ombudsman, bearing in mind road safety and traffic congestion concerns, customer needs and viability of the service."

"Any damage to the bus stop and shelter would be criminal, so it would become a police matter."

Shot teen 'targeted' say police

A 16-YEAR-OLD boy is in hospital after being shot in the back in the early hours of yesterday morning.

The incident happened shortly before 4am when residents reported hearing gun fire in Thricknells Close, Marsh Farm, Luton.

Police and the ambulance service attended the scene where the teen was found with a gunshot wound to his back.

The victim was taken to hospital for treatment where he remains in a serious but stable condition.

Armed Response Officers have completed a search of the area and a cordon has been established while Scenes of Crime Officers conduct a thorough forensic examination of the scene.

A man was seen leaving the area at the time of the shooting and he is described as white, in his mid-teens, wearing a blue top and blue denim jeans.

Detective Inspector Sean Quinn, investigating, said: "We are in the early stages of this investigation and are piecing together exactly what happened prior to this shooting."

"However, we believe this was a targeted incident and we would urge anyone who has information about this shooting or anyone who can help identify the person seen leaving the scene to contact the police immediately."

"They can do this in complete confidence and we can reassure them that any information given will be used confidentially to trace whoever was responsible for this crime."

Anyone with information should call Bedfordshire Police, in confidence, on 101.

Defendant wanted to 'scare' victim with car

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE man on trial for the murder of Delaney Brown last September was told in court that he had been "hunting him" when he drove a car into the teenager as he was riding a bike.

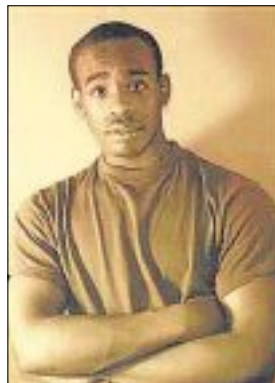

Kyle Beckford denied the suggestion put to him by Stuart Trimmer, QC for the prosecution, but agreed he had wanted to scare Delaney that day by driving up close behind on a pavement in a residential street.

The 22-year-old told Luton Crown Court that he suspected 19-year-old Delaney Brown could have been involved in an "ambush" of his cousin by a group of young men from Hockwell Ring some weeks before. In the attack he said his cousin had been beaten up.

Dealing with how his car came to strike the rear of Delaney Brown's bike, sending the teenager flying through the air with tragic consequences, Beckford told the court: "I just wanted to scare him because of what had happened with my cousin."

"He was involved and he was telling me he wasn't. I didn't want to kill him or seriously harm him. He was my friend."

Kyle Beckford of Waleys Close, Marsh Farm, Luton, pleads not guilty to murdering Delaney Brown on the afternoon of September 5 last year in Vincent Road, Luton.

KILLED: Delaney Brown

He admits manslaughter, and for the jury now listening to the final stages of the evidence, the issue for them to decide is whether he intended to kill Mr Brown or cause him really serious bodily harm.

The court has heard Beckford was behind the wheel of a stolen silver BMW that afternoon.

There were three other young men in the car and another was riding a moped.

The jury had heard how as teenage schoolboys Beckford and Delaney had been friends. But the prosecution claim they had drifted into rival gangs in Luton.

Delaney Brown was a member of the 'Lewsey Farm Gang' sometimes known as 'The Trap Gang', while Kyle Beckford was said to have been a member of the 'Marsh Farm Gang'.

The jury has been told on the afternoon of September 5 last year Delaney was cycling along Toddington Road in Luton.

It's alleged by the Crown that Kyle Beckford, in a stolen BMW, followed Delaney into Vincent Road and then drove up onto the pavement and deliberately drove into the rear of the teenager at between 19 and 25mph.

Delaney Brown was thrown into the air and "propelled" into a wall after the car drove into him from behind.

He died from a broken neck and his chest was crushed. The car sped from the scene and was recovered by police the following day.

Throughout his time in the witness box, Kyle Beckford, refused to name the other people who had been in the car with him that day or who was riding the moped.

The case continues.

On arrival, they discovered the victim unconscious at the scene while a second man had also suffered facial injuries.

Anyone with information should call Beds Police on 101.

FUNDING FOR NEW AMBULANCES

Worker scoops top employee award

HEAD waitress Helene Oggero, pictured, has been named Employee of the Year at Luton Hoo Golf & Spa Hotel.

The globetrotting waitress, who has also worked at Michelin-starred restaurants, on a cruise ship and at the famous Old Course Hotel in St Andrews, Scotland, joined the hotel in August 2009.

She started work as an assistant head waitress in the hotel's Wernher

Restaurant, was promoted to the position of junior head waitress a year later and last April was appointed head waitress.

She said: "What I like the most at Luton Hoo is the interaction with the customers."

"During the past three years more and more guests have become regulars, and it's such a pleasure to see them again."

"I also really enjoy working with nice products, food and wine, and making recommendations to guests."

Helene was presented with the award by Luton Hoo's general manager, Matthew Long, who said: "The success of the hotel is down to the ongoing commitment of our members of staff, whether they are meeting guests on a day-to-day basis like Helene or working behind the scenes, and this is why we like to recognise them with our own internal awards."

Drivers counting the cost of mirror thefts

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

LUTON-based Vauxhall has admitted it has fallen victim to a problem of thieves stealing wing mirror casings from cars – but says there are no plans to change the design of the covers on its vehicles.

Astra owner Mia O'Neill, who lives in the St Annes area of Luton, said she first noticed the casing from one of her wing mirrors had been stolen four weeks ago.

After buying a replacement and having it sprayed to match the colour of her car – costing around £45 – the casing from the mirror on the other side of the car was also taken.

Miss O'Neill said: "I thought this was a one-off but now when I drive round town I notice how many casings are missing, especially on Vauxhalls."

"My car looks horrific, but I refuse to spend money replacing the casings just to have them taken again so I have covered them in duct tape."

"I didn't think much of it when the first one went but the second time I did report it to the police."

In May last year Luton on Sunday reported that Thomas Fields, who lives in Leagrave, had three casings stolen in the space of three weeks.

Stuart Harris, Head of Carline Brand at Vauxhall, said: "We are aware that there is a problem with the thefts of wing mirror casings from our cars, and that many go on to be sold online."

"The local police are aware of these activities and monitor popular sales websites."

"However this is a problem that is shared by all car manufacturers and there are no plans to change the way the casings are designed.

"As there are a lot of residents in Luton that drive Vauxhall cars it may appear the problem is worse in the town, but is an issue that all car manufacturers are trying to contend with."

Bedfordshire Police said that they have one reported incident in the St Annes area since April.

Dance school supports TV's Strictly

YOUNGSTERS at a dance school have supported the stars of hit TV show Strictly Come Dancing in a stage show.

The NKB School of Dance featured during Pasha Kovalev and his partner Katya Virshilas' sold-out event at the Grove Theatre, Dunstable, on May 3.

NKB is run by two sisters, Nicola and Karen Bartlett, who said: "We are extremely proud of all the children in our school and to see them perform with professional dancers gives them an experience they would not normally get."

In previous years the school has supported Strictly dancers whenever they have visited the town and Nicola said she hoped the association would continue.

Mike Newman, a host on the tour, said: "It's always great working with new talent and teachers Nicola and Karen always provide us with a brilliant showpiece for the tour."

Sex case cautions not the 'full story'

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

REVELATIONS that 71 cautions for sexual offences – including one for rape – have been issued in Bedfordshire need to be looked at in more detail, a campaigner has said.

Peter Saunders, founder of the National Association for People Abused in Childhood (NAPAC), said there was 'more to the story than the statistics' which show that cautions have been used for sexual offences that could have warranted court proceedings.

Freedom of Information requests sent to police forces in the east of England by the BBC revealed that 1,140 cautions had been given for sexual offences in the past five years, with 71 coming from Bedfordshire Police.

A caution is a formal warning issued by police to someone who has admitted a criminal offence and is usually given for less serious matters.

But Bedfordshire Police said cautions for serious offences were used in 'exceptional circumstances' and the decision was made by the Crown Prosecution Service.

Mr Saunders said: "As I have been saying in the media there is always more to the story than the statistics and we need to look behind them to see what is going on.

"When it happens between two youngsters who wants to criminalise it? So we have to be careful about what we are talking about.

"For example, there's one case of it happening with someone with learning disabilities so something like that has to be taken into consideration.

"But there does seem to be a large number of cautions and I think part of it is that the police are under huge pressure to clear crime rates and tick boxes.

"Also these kinds of crimes are hard to prove in a court of law because there are not many witnesses."

Mr Saunders added that recent discussions around the sexual abuse of children was a positive step that had finally given 'a voice' to survivors of abuse.

Bernard Rix, an independent police advisor based in Biggleswade, said: "There is a challenge here for the force. They need to maintain public confidence in the use of cautions, especially in the case of sexual offences."

A Bedfordshire Police spokeswoman said: "Cautions are only used for serious offences in exceptional circumstances.

"Within the last five years, one caution has been used for an historic rape where both the victim and offender were children.

"The decision to caution is made by the Crown Prosecution Service."

Memorial match for Lewis

KEEN footballers are being called upon to play in a tournament in memory of Lewis Fontaine Snow.

The 21-year-old from Luton passed away in 2008 while taking part in a game at playfootball.net in Stopsley.

Now an annual five-a-side competition has been set up to raise money for Great Ormond Street Hospital where Lewis, pictured, was treated for a heart condition as a child.

This year, the tournament will take place on Sunday, June 2, at playfootball.net on St Thomas Road, Luton and begins at 1.30pm.

His mother Jackie Snow said: "Each year I am overwhelmed by the amount of people who come along to help support and take part in this Annual Charity Day in memory of Lewis."

'Ridiculous' move to call ambulance

BY KATHRYN CAIN
editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

AN ambulance was called to transport a dying man from a Bedford hospital wing across the road to A&E after a porter was told to stand down, an inquest was told.

Following the death of 72-year-old Donald Bennett from Dunstable last July, South Essex Partnership Trust (SEPT), who run the unit, undertook an investigation into its emergency responses.

An inquest at Bedford

Coroner's Court on Tuesday heard that Weller Wing patient Mr Bennett collapsed in his throat as he was having dinner on June 30.

Nurses performed CPR but were unable to remove any food stuck in his windpipe.

A hospital porter was then called to transport Mr Bennett to A&E, but was then told not to come and an ambulance was called instead.

Although the decision did not directly lead to his death, assistant deputy coroner, Belinda Cheney, said it was 'ridiculous' that an ambulance was called when Weller Wing was so close by.

Lesley Cullen, head of infection prevention control at SEPT, said: "The arrest team felt it was in the best interest of the patient at the time. We have now changed our service level agreement and a porter will now attend emergencies and transport the patient if they are stable enough."

Ms Cheney recorded a verdict the Mr Benner had died of natural causes on July 4.

SPEAKER: Mr Bercow outlined his vision for HoC reform

'Welcome revival' of Commons – MP

THE last few years have seen a 'welcome revival' in the House of Commons (HoC), an MP has said.

During a talk at the University of Bedfordshire, John Bercow MP said things like the Commission into Banking Standards had given the HoC more authority and credibility.

Mr Bercow, who became Speaker of the House in 2009, also mentioned the expenses scandals and influx of new MPs as having an influence.

DELIGHTED: Youngsters in the new-look changing room

Pupils love their decorated room

LADY Zia Wernher School has been given a makeover by six young apprentices from Luton Borough Council's Building and Technical Services (BTS) division.

The group recently gave up their weekend to transform a classroom and swimming pool changing rooms.

Teacher Philippa Belding said: "I would like to say a big thanks to the young people for the fabulous job they did. We got some lovely responses from the pupils."

Concern grows on future of wardens

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

A RESIDENT at a sheltered housing scheme in Farley Hill says a lack of information about the future of their on-site warden has left vulnerable people feeling 'unsettled.'

In March, Luton Borough Council proposed to replace the current on-site managers at schemes throughout the town with office-based staff, as part of a Sheltered Housing Service review.

A consultation began and residents at facilities across Luton had meetings about the plans.

But Bethune Court resident Veronica Gudgin says that she hasn't heard anything since.

She said: "We all feel very unsettled because no-one has given us an update on what is going on."

"We were led to believe that we would hear something in mid-April, but it is now May and we are none the wiser."

"We'd just like to be kept in the loop. As we said before, we don't want to lose our warden."

"We all moved here to live in sheltered accommodation, and without a warden that isn't what we signed up for."

"We have very vulnerable residents living here that need that service."

A spokesman for Luton Borough Council said: "We are undertaking a review of our Sheltered Housing Service and this is ongoing."

"No decisions have been made yet in relation to this but a report is scheduled to be presented to the Executive in July."

Bus money move was wrong

SIR – I am writing with regards to Cllr Simmons article trying to explain why it was necessary to cut funding for denominational transport.

I am still wondering why none of the concerns raised by parents have been addressed. Isn't child safety important?

As a resident of the Warden Hill area my concerns over traffic and pollution have not been noted at all!

Cllr Simmons goes to great lengths to blame central government but hasn't said what THIS council will do to recoup the millions it is owed in council tax. Wouldn't that help?

What has really annoyed me is that in the article Cllr Simmons also mentions other cuts that may have to be made and then wants us all to go to carnival.

Seriously, with the number of stabbings and shootings lately?

How much will the bill for policing this event be?

Dee Drennan,
Warden Hill resident

Give someone else a chance!

SIR – The government has got to base its policies on fairness and honesty.

Not just a case of whatever they can get away with.

Once it has lost the trust of the people, it is pointless that a particular government

All services under scrutiny

SIR – I can understand parents' frustrations at the funding for faith school buses being cut by the council.

However, I don't see how anyone can claim that this decision is discriminatory in any way.

We have been told that each and every council service is being looked at to make cutbacks to save money.

There are proposals to close the libraries in our town, there won't be anyone cutting the grass and keeping the green areas tidy and the school uniform grant for children has already gone.

There are lots of consultations going on which prove just how many areas are being scrutinised and checked.

Fair play to the parents and children of Cardinal Newman and the other Catholic primary schools in the area who stood up and made their voices heard – and very effectively too.

But lots of other cuts, which aren't getting as much attention will affect just as many people.

What about the pensioners who can't use their bus passes in the morning, or parents who are unable to afford a school uniform for their children.

Everyone in this town will be affected by the budget cuts in some way, which is sad but unfortunately very true.

should stay in power.

Move over. Give someone else a turn.

Bracklesham Gardens, Luton

Cuts should begin at the top

SIR – So, Iain Duncan Smith, the Work and Pensions Secretary, has had a brainwave.

He suggests that better-off pensioners voluntarily pay back their winter fuel allowances and other benefits as a means of helping out our creaking economy.

Well, apart from the minor detail that there's no system which would allow this to happen, I think it's a brilliant idea.

In fact I think it's such a brilliant idea it would be unfair to limit it to the lucky pensioners.

This wonderful opportunity should be rolled out across society. Starting at the top.

We're told that the whole of the government front bench is made up of millionaires, so clearly they don't need their parliamentary fees and generous expenses.

What a wonderful example it would be to the rest of us to see all that dosh going straight back to the treasury.

Over to you, then IDS. Here's an opportunity for you and your colleagues to show some real leadership.

Ron Turvey,
Stanmore Crescent, Luton

Help organisation win cash

SIR – Fundraisers from Luton are on a mission to help reduce landfill waste by participating in The Biscuit Wrapper Roundup, a nationwide collection contest from McVitie's, which aims to save used biscuit wrappers from local landfill.

The top twenty collectors nationwide will win a combined £1,000 worth of charity donations, so fundraisers from the Rotary Club of Luton Someries who are collecting via Double S Travel in Talbot Road, Round Green, are asking people to help with their attempts to be crowned the Biscuit Wrapper Roundup champions.

Together we can save considerably more used biscuit wrappers from landfill which is good for the environment.

Simply drop your used biscuit wrappers of any brand at our collection boxes at Double S Travel in Round Green between 9am and 6pm Monday to Saturday and we will happily send them in as part of our recycling collections.

Let pubs take charge

LIKE a pint. The preference is what my dad used to call 'cooking bitter'. By that he meant the ordinary standard brewery draught bitter and not any of those Fancy Dan bitters that are high in alcohol and sweet.

The fact that we can still drink draught bitters is thanks in part to the Campaign for Real Ale (CAMRA), which fought the breweries' desire for us all to drink keg beers and or lager back in the 1970s.

The trouble with organisations such as CAMRA is that once they have succeeded they don't know what to do with themselves.

Should they just fold and go back to gardening or sitting in pub gardens, or carry on and broaden their brief.

CAMRA has decided to carry on and is in rude good health but I sometimes wish it hadn't. It has a kind of informal power, in that to be a CAMRA pub means something, as does an entry in the Good Beer Guide and Pub of the Year awards.

So it can bully pubs, and the pressure group is not just interested in good beer but in what the pub bars should look like.

Which, for the anoraks who run it, means returning to the 1950s, with no juke boxes, fruit machines, pool tables and central heating.

The pub needs real fires, a dart board and lots of real ales no-one outside of the organisation has heard of.

When not doing this they organise beer festivals, which must rank as one of the year's saddest events, populated by some of the saddest people, standing around in their beards, jumpers and sandals and drinking warm, flat pints of 'dogs bollocks'.

That is a shame because pubs could do with a bit of help at the moment. They are disappearing faster than snow at harvest time and no-one seems to be fighting very hard for their survival.

Large brewery companies, such as Charles Wells, seem intent on closing pubs, rather than doing everything they can to keep them open.

I am aware that lifestyles have changed, alongside drink driving laws, no smoking laws and cheap booze at supermarkets. And, at the moment, many people have less money in their pockets. But still the first preference seems to be to close, especially if it can be sold easily.

Actually the first step is often to raise prices and if that doesn't work, and I can't imagine why it wouldn't, then close it down, and with a bit of luck, flog it off.

And quite often now it is hard work for little money for the landlords, as pub companies squeeze profit margins. It often does not matter how well they are doing as rents are adjusted up and down, according to turnover.

It was once said that just because there is a problem it does not automatically follow that there is a solution. But there could be one here.

Why not offer incentives for landlords to become freeholders? And CAMRA could help all pubs, not just those that fit its criteria.

At the moment they often feel trapped between the rock of the brewer and the hard place of the pub company. But if they were genuinely running their own business, life might look a bit rosier.

They could even choose whether or not to have a juke box.

Orchard School & Nursery

Thank you to all our children, staff, parents and friends in helping Orchard to achieve an outstanding report in our recent EYFS ISI (Ofsted) inspection. We are delighted to have received outstanding outcomes in all areas of our EYFS provision.

Orchard is a preparatory school for boys and girls, aged from under one to nine years plus, situated in the outskirts of Barton le Clay village. Small classes are an important contributor to the success of Orchard, which provides the best in education. The School prides itself in teaching children how to learn alongside finding and nurturing the individual potential and confidence in every child. The aim of the school is to engender a passion for learning 'to be the best that I can be'.

The school boasts an excellent academic record with the majority of our pupils successfully entering the Harpur Trust Schools in Bedford. The combination of a progressive structured, yet genuinely friendly, family atmosphere creates the ideal environment for our children to thrive. Our pupils develop into well-motivated, balanced children who are considerate, well-mannered, who know the value of hard work and who go on to excel at their next schools.

Located in a beautiful setting Orchard is surrounded by rolling countryside with the abundance of wildlife that this brings. The School has been established for twelve years and has a well-regarded Nursery for children, which celebrated its twenty first birthday year last year.

For a tour of the School or Nursery please call 01582 882054 or come along to the Open Day on 18th May.

Video released of shop raid gunman

WANTED: Do you recognise this man who was involved in the shooting?

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

POLICE have released CCTV footage showing two men that they want to trace in connection with an attempted robbery at a newsagents in which a shot was fired.

The pair approached the Premier News Shop in Kirby Drive, Luton, at around 7.15am on Tuesday.

The video shows one man standing by the door while the other enters the shop. He then reaches into his bag and pulls out a handgun.

A shot is fired in the direction of shopkeeper Dhirubhai Patel, before both men leave the scene empty-handed and run off in the direction of Whitehaven.

Mr Patel, aged 61, said that he has been left 'shocked' by the incident.

He added that as the gun was being pointed at him, he picked up some crates in an effort to protect himself from the raiders.

The images show that the first man is wearing black clothing and a black balaclava.

The second man wore a grey tracksuit and was carrying a brightly-coloured drawstring bag which was slung over his back.

Investigating officer, Detective Constable Rebecca Kitts, said: "The CCTV film and pictures that we have released may act as a reminder to members of the public who were in the area and who may have seen the two men."

If you can help identify the men you can contact DC Kitts, in confidence, at Luton Police Station on 01582 394442.

The full video footage and additional images can be seen on our website by visiting www.luton-dunstable.co.uk.

IF YOU just can't wait until Sunday, May 26, the UK Centre for Carnival Arts (UKCCA) is offering the opportunity to have a look at all of the costumes that have been made – before they hit the streets of Luton.

Gala Night, which is scheduled to take place on Friday (May 17) at the UKCCA building on St Mary's Road, gives artists the chance to celebrate their hard work alongside residents from the town.

The event is a traditional carnival practice that takes place ahead of the big day, and helps to get the whole community into the party mood.

Artists have spent months crafting their costumes for the biggest one-day carnival in Europe, to make sure the spectacle is bigger, better and more colourful than ever.

All of the finished products will be displayed on Gala Night to allow you to have a peek before they are paraded through the streets on carnival Sunday.

Live performances, entertainment, DJs and delicious food will also be on offer to

THE countdown to the eagerly anticipated Luton International Carnival is now on! With just two weeks to go until the big event, our reporter LAUREN ARCHELL finds out how residents can get a sneak preview of what the big day will offer get everyone in the carnival spirit. This year the event is hosted by Coco P with performances from the Revellers, Mashasha and Sam (Tassa Drummers), Bhangra dance and music from Luton Sounds Forum.

There's also a three course meal provided by award-winning TV chef Ray Mahabir.

Pax Nindi, creative director at the UK Centre for Carnival Arts, said: "I love Gala Night because it gives me a preview of what the carnival parade will look like."

"Most importantly, it gives carnival goers the chance to get a sneaky peek of some of the colourful costumes. It really is the perfect pre-carnival party!"

The Luton International Carnival takes place just over a week later on Sunday, May 26.

As always, the highlight of the day will be the spectacular carnival parade which leaves Wardown Park at 1:30pm and will wind through the town centre in one breathtaking procession, finishing back at Wardown Park.

In addition to the colourful parade, audiences can enjoy music on the Live Stage at Wardown Park from 12 noon to 6pm plus seven sound sites, a music area on The Moor and trade, craft and food stalls.

Four shortlisted for top cop role

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE Police and Crime Commissioner (PCC) has welcomed what he describes as a 'strong line-up' of candidates for the post of Chief Constable of Bedfordshire Police.

Current police boss Alf Hitchcock is due to leave the force for a role with the Ministry of Defence Police.

However PCC Olly Martins, has said that four 'very strong candidates' have now been shortlisted to take over the important role.

He said: "The appointment of a new chief constable is a critical decision for any commissioner, and I am fortunate to have been able to shortlist four highly experienced candidates.

"These four very able individuals will now go forward to the final interview and selection process.

"We are focused on the appointment of the right person as the next chief constable of Bedfordshire Police."

In addition to the actual interview, candidates will undergo a series of tests including a media exercise to camera, psychological appraisals and presentations, before the successful candidate is selected.

The Zombies are back and sounding better than ever

MUSIC

The Alban Arena
Saturday, May 26, 8pm

FOLLOWING a successful tour of the USA and Canada, The Zombies arrive at Alban Arena on the last Sunday of the month as part of their latest UK dates.

At this stage of the rock 'n' roll story most bands that made their first mark in the 1960s are either at home tending gardens or peddling nostalgia to finance their ex-wives. But this group has managed to keep things moving.

Rod Argent, Colin Blunstone, both pictured, and fellow original members Chris White, Paul Atkinson and Hugh Grundy formed the group as teenagers in St. Albans, Hertfordshire, in the days when the Beatles were still playing at the Cavern Club.

But after endless local tours the group landed a hit with 'She's Not There', a UK top 20 tune that went to No. 2 on Billboard's Hot 100 and No. 1 on the rival Cashbox listing.

Now The Zombies have a new ten-track collection recorded on the road last year. It's called 'The Zombies Live In The UK' and is being released this month to coincide with the UK tour.

Argent said: "We're very excited about the way the band's playing. Colin's voice is as strong as it ever was, and I feel that my voice is better than it used to be, because I've worked on it."

"Our chops, both playing and singing, are better now than they were before."

In 2001, Foo Fighters and former Nirvana figurehead Dave Grohl told music magazine NME that he wished he'd been at Abbey Road with The Zombies for the recording of Odessey & Oracle, describing it as an 'amazing album'.

To mark their 40th anniversary in 2008, The Zombies performed the album as part of three Shepherd's Bush Empire shows.

Argent added: "They were very special. People kept coming to the dressing room saying 'Do you know who's here tonight?' Paul Weller, Snow Patrol, Robert Plant's in, he's going to come back and say hello."

"One date turned into three because it sold out. I must admit we were panicking, but I tell you, within 30 seconds, I thought it was going to be fabulous."

Tickets cost £22 and you can book by calling 01727 844488.

Big screen treat being served up for movie buffs

FILM SEASON

The Grove Theatre
Various dates and times

THE Grove Theatre in Dunstable continues its successful film schedule with new titles confirmed for May and June.

The season includes The Odd Life of Timothy Green (U), Disney's Finding Nemo (U), and DreamWorks' The Croods (U) for younger film fans, with The Host (12A), Hyde Park on Hudson (12A), Song for Marion (PG) and Trance (15) for the older film goers.

And the Grove is happy to confirm that over May and June it will also be screening Promised Land (15), The Big Wedding (15) and Blue Sky Studio's Epic (TBC), as well as Baz Luhrmann's eagerly anticipated The Great Gatsby (12A).

With Promised Land (15) only recently released in the UK and the others not yet available, the Grove is working hard to bring the latest cinematic releases to the area.

The film follows the life of corporate salesman Steve Butler (Matt Damon) who arrives in a rural town with his sales partner, Sue Thomason (Frances McDormand).

But in recent years the town has been hit hard by an economic decline so the two outsiders think the local citizens are likely to view their company's offer for drilling rights to their properties as much needed relief.

However, what at first seems like an easy job for the duo is complicated by the objection of a respected school teacher who is a grassroots campaigner supported by another man who counters Steve both personally and professionally.

The Grove has one of the largest high definition digital cinema screens in the country and a full surround sound system in the auditorium.

Visit www.grovetheatre.co.uk for full film listings or call 01582 602080 for ticket prices and bookings.

Rising comedy stars bring the Fringe to the Grove Theatre

COMEDY

The Grove Theatre
Thursday, 8pm

GET a taste of the Edinburgh Festival Fringe at the Grove Theatre this May with not one but two of the next big hits on the comedy circuit.

This Edinburgh preview double bill features multi award-winning New Zealander, Rhys Mathewson and David Morgan (pictured), the legend of Dave's Leicester Comedy Festival.

David Morgan discovered stand up comedy whilst studying at university in Leicester and his debut show Triple Threat was nominated for Best New Show at Dave's Leicester Comedy Festival and shortlisted for the Amused Moose Laughter Award at the Edinburgh Festival Fringe in 2011.

He has toured all over the UK and is a regular panellist on Big Brother's Bit on the Side.

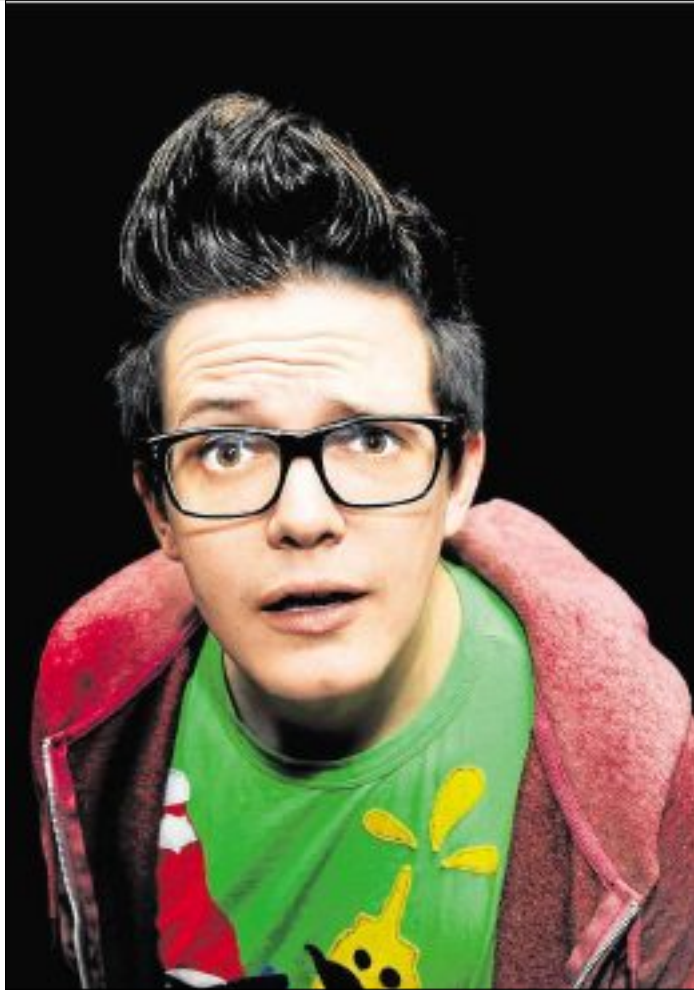

In 2010, at just 19, Rhys Mathewson became the youngest ever recipient of the Billy T Award at the New Zealand International Comedy Festival with his show Rhyspect.

His TV appearances include Christmas Gala (TV2), AotearoaHA (TV3) and 7 Days (TV3), New Zealand's equivalent of Mock The Week.

David Morgan will be previewing his hotly anticipated new show Pretty, while Rhys Mathewson will be previewing the UK debut of his sketch 'The Best £10 You'll Ever Spend'.

At just £10 a ticket this is a unique chance to see Edinburgh Festival Fringe shows at great local prices without the trip up north.

Call the box office on 01582 602080 for more information or visit www.grovetheatre.co.uk for online bookings.

Rockers back after 30 years

PREVIEW

UK Decay
Album out soon

LUTON'S own post-punk rockers UK Decay will release their first full-length studio album for more than 30 years this month.

'New Hope for the Dead' is coming out on May 22 and follows their gig on Friday, which was their first home town show in three years.

UK Decay led the emerging post-punk scene in the early 1980s and were credited with coining a term that spawned a movement after they were the first to use the phrase 'Goth' in an interview.

Their first album and associated singles regularly topped independent charts across the world, with extensive tours taking the band across the UK, Europe and US on many occasions.

Three years ago they reformed and in the last 18 months have hit cities across Europe, including Lisbon, Berlin, Leipzig, Hamburg, Rome, Milan, Bologna and Rimini, plus selected UK dates.

The new album is a heavy, sonic assault built upon the politics of dissent and the songs cover a wealth of subjects, from the fracturing nature of society and extremism and bigotry.

Abbo, a singer in the band, said: "We're not here for a nostalgic reunion."

"We're here because we've got something to say. There's been three or four generations of music since we split up but no one's really taken up the mantle of kicking against a world of apathy, discrimination and totalitarianism."

"We're finding our voice resonates with old and new alike," added guitarist Spon. "It's a new time but the same problems exist."

"We've always been a political band, but one that's able to reference human passions too."

"The new album encapsulates all of that and presents it with a sound that's the best we've ever achieved."

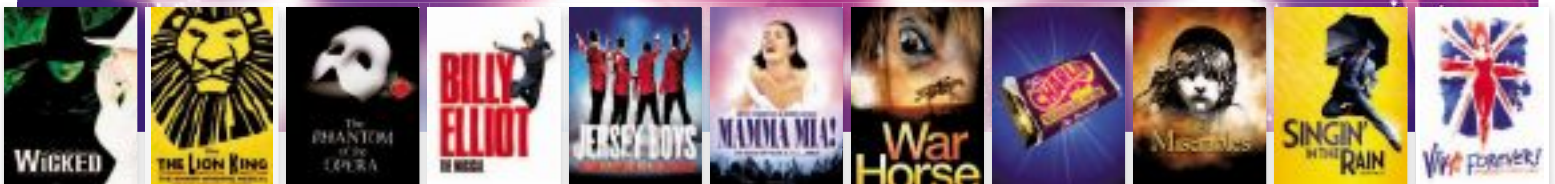

For more information on the band visit the website www.ukdecay.co.uk.

Your CV

When you send your CV off to a potential employer, remember that you won't be the only one. Hundreds of other people could be applying for the job as well.

So what are you going to do to make you stand out from the crowd? Why should an employer take a chance on you instead of someone else?

Your CV is your first real chance to sell yourself to a potential employer. Most employers will scan through a CV in about 30 seconds so you need to grab their attention from the start - and make them want to invite you for an interview.

There are five main areas to consider when writing your CV:

- Make sure your CV looks the part. Your CV should look clean and tidy - don't scrawl it out on a piece of A4 paper. If you haven't got access to a PC or printer, ask a friend or use your local library. Use a good quality paper and steer clear of fancy borders and front covers.
- Watch out for silly spelling and grammar mistakes. They make you look lazy and show employers that you don't really care. It's not difficult to do a spell check on your PC and if you're really stuck then don't just guess, reach for a dictionary. Get a friend to read through your CV for you - a second opinion is always useful.
- Make sure your CV is well organised. When you list your previous jobs, make sure the dates are correct and try not to leave any gaps. If you took time out to go travelling then say so - employers won't mark you down just because you've tried something new.
- Don't waffle. Remember that employers don't have time to read every word of your CV. Long paragraphs and sentences put people off, so try bullet-points to break up text. Make sure your CV is no longer than two pages long - employers don't want your life history, they just want to see that you've got what it takes to do the job.
- Don't list any failures. Employers have enough trouble finding someone who is right for the job - they don't need help finding reasons not to employ you. If you have to include a mistake from your past, make sure you show the employer that you learnt something from the experience.

Keep it simple

Personal details

Start off with your full name, address, home and mobile phone numbers and email address. If you are offered an interview, the employer will want to get hold of you so give him as many options as possible.

Summary/professional profile

This is the No1 area for selling yourself. Set out your main skills and personal qualities but keep it interesting and tight - one paragraph should do to cover everything.

Education and qualifications

List your qualifications and education history, with the most recent first. You don't need to list the grades for each exam you have passed unless they were exceptional results - simply listing the number and type of exams you've passed is fine. Also, list any relevant professional organisations you belong to and training courses you have been on.

Work experience

Start with your most recent position and work backwards, giving addresses along with start and finish dates. Set out your main responsibilities, duties and most importantly achievements, along with any skills you picked up or improvements you made while you were there. This is a really important section in your CV so make it count - but don't waffle.

If you have not had a full-time job before, detail any part-time jobs you may have held or any placement you have been on.

Other skills

Set out any computer skills you may have and the software you are most familiar with. Can you type, do shorthand or speak a foreign language fluently? If you have a driving licence, let the employer know. If it's clean, tell them.

Interests & hobbies

Briefly list what you get up to in your spare time. Put down any positions you hold in clubs or associations, along with any responsibilities and achievements.

References

Make sure you have at least two people (including one from your previous or current job) who will tell an employer what a thoroughly nice person you are and what a potential asset to the company you would be.

If you want to list them now make sure you include their name, job title, postal & e-mail address and contact phone numbers. Alternatively, just put "Available on request" so the employer knows to follow up references at a later date.

Add a covering letter

The main aim of a covering letter is to encourage an employer to give you a chance. You want them to read your CV, so sell it to them. You should always enclose a covering letter when applying for a job - most employers won't consider you unless you do.

A covering letter should let the employer know why you are interested in the job and why you think you can do it.

The hints and tips below should point you in the right direction:

- Keep it simple. A covering letter should be short and to the point - no more than six paragraphs.
- Mention the job. If you are replying to an advert, mention what the job is and where you saw it. The company may be advertising for other positions and it may not be clear which job you are applying for.
- Sell yourself. Explain why you are the perfect candidate for the job. Show off your strengths and experience. Refer to your CV - if it goes missing then at least an employer will know that you've sent it.
- Check it for mistakes. A silly spelling mistake in a covering letter is likely to cost you your chance of getting an interview. Also, make sure it is addressed to the right person in the right department.

A covering letter can be just as important as a CV in getting you an interview. It's your first point of contact with your potential employer - so make it count.

YOUR SUPPORT WILL TACKLE CHALLENGES.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984 - SECTION 14(1) CENTRAL BEDFORDSHIRE COUNCIL (CAMPTON AND CHICKSANDS: PART OF BRIDLEWAY NO CA2) (TEMPORARY PROHIBITION OF THROUGH TRAFFIC) ORDER 2013

Notice is hereby given that Central Bedfordshire Council have made an Order the effect of which will be to prohibit any person proceeding on foot or on horseback or lead a horse or cycle along the length of Bridleway No CA2, Campton and Chicksands, which extends from Ordnance Survey Grid Reference (OS GR) TL 1291 3910 (Map point A) to OS GR TL 1290 3909 (Map point B).

HOW TO B GOOD

Is there any point in a People Carrier if it's a really small one? It's a fair question that supermini-MPV models in the Nissan Note, Citroen C3 Picasso and Vauxhall Meriva segment have often struggled to answer.

With Ford's B-MAX, we have at last a credible response to that query, its unique design and unrivalled versatility offering more ways to use a car of just 4m in length than you might ever have thought possible.

With the side doors open, you're ready to admire this car's party piece: the absence of the kind of centre B-pillar that almost every other car in the world has to have for structural rigidity. Here, that same stiffness is provided by the edges of the doors themselves when they shut tightly together, clamping themselves against the body. What this ingenuity creates is a car that's incredibly easy for anyone of any age to get in and out of. And get things in and out of. With both side doors open, there's a 1.5m-wide aperture, into which you can slide items of up to 2.34m in length if you've taken up the option of folding flat the front passenger seat. Of course, most of the time, you'll still be loading stuff like that in through the 318-litre boot, extendable to 1386-litres if you flatten the rear bench.

And under the bonnet? Well, if you can get beyond the 90PS 1.4 and auto-only 105PS 1.6-litre petrol units at the foot of the range, there's plenty to admire, most notably with the innovative three cylinder 1.0-litre EcoBoost petrol powerplants, offered in either 100 or 120PS guises. If you want a diesel, there's a choice of a rather slow 75PS 1.5 TDCi or a 95PS 1.6-litre TDCi engine.

MISSED OUT: Stockwood Park were beaten

Stockwood miss chance to win the county cup again

RUGBY UNION

BY TIM BARTLETT

sport@londonmedia.co.uk

STOCKWOOD Park narrowly failed to lift the Bedfordshire County Cup after a tight defeat to Biggleswade.

After a closely contested final the spoils went to the visiting 'Biggies' who ran out 15-8 winners on a beautiful and sunny Luton afternoon in front of a bumper crowd at London Road.

The visitors looked a well-oiled outfit early on and took ten minutes to assert an 8-0 lead, thanks to a seventh minute James Emerson try and a Harry Worboys penalty.

Stockwood Park had to wait until the 29th minute to reduce the deficit, when Jason Carr kicked a penalty.

That closed the gap, but Stockwood were struggling to assert themselves and were failing to show the kind of flair that had typified their recent performances.

It was the second half that saw Stockwood begin to dominate, only for George Humberstone to stun the home crowd with a glorious solo run and try after 50 minutes to put Biggleswade 15-3 up.

This prompted the return of Stockwood's Ben Griffin, who'd missed the run-up to the game due to injury.

Griffin certainly injected impetus to the Stockwood pack, and 15 minutes later, he was instrumental in a 15 yard gain for his side from a scrum that resulted in a try to pull the score back to 15-8.

The grand slam finish ensued, but a revival was not on the cards, and Stockwood were denied their fourth County Cup in five years.

"I was gutted about the result, but defeat can make you stronger," said Griffin.

"I am so ready for next season already. I just wished I could have made more of a difference."

Biggleswade were quick to praise the Stockwood efforts.

"They were good value for the possession they had for large periods of the game", said skipper Jonathan Hamilton.

"We went off the boil a bit when we scored our second try. When they scored, we didn't really get our game together, we started getting frustrated with the referee, which is never good, but we did what we always do which is fight and cover each other, if one of us misses a tackle, another is there to put the hit in."

RUGBY UNION

BY TIM BARTLETT

sport@londonmedia.co.uk

A BRAVE Luton effort was not enough as they were just edged out 17-13 by big favourites Amptihill in Wednesday's East Midlands Senior Cup final at Goldington Road.

It had previously been suggested that Amptihill – who play at a higher level – could put 100 points on the board but a rout failed to occur at the home of Bedford Blues.

In fact Luton led 13-7 at one stage until Amptihill managed to turn the game on its head.

Luton forward Daniel Blinkthorn said that stamina had proved to be a key factor.

"It was a well fought game from both sides," he said. "Unfortunately, fitness came through in the end. We tried our best, it's all we could do. The crowd were incredible, they made all the difference."

Defeated backs coach Nick Rhodes added that Luton were pleased with their contribution in the final, as his side came so close to picking up the silverware.

"They had opportunities to kick, but chose to go for the try, it is typical of their ambition," he said. "It made for a cracking game."

"We're pleased with our contribution, we now need to focus on increasing our strength, and depth, for next season."

Amptihill took an early 7-0 lead following a try by winger Lee Anker, which was converted by Paul Davies.

Anker was one of three ex-Luton players now playing for Amptihill - club captain Phil Lane and Nick Lewis being the other two.

London 1 North outfit Luton responded with a penalty by Will Affleck and the score remained at 7-3 at the break.

Luton's second half response was typical of the tenacity they'd shown all night, and just what the game needed.

Tom Mahendran and Aiden Kenny scored tries to set up a six point 13-7 lead for the underdogs, but Paul Turner's men were far from finished, and tries from Joe Sproston and Lee Bray restored their advantage and were enough to win the game by the narrowest of margins.

"Credit to Luton, they dug in, especially in the contact area," said Amptihill's head coach Turner.

"It was a good local derby. I suppose the score flattered Luton a little bit but fair credit to them they made it a good cup tie, and worthy of a final."

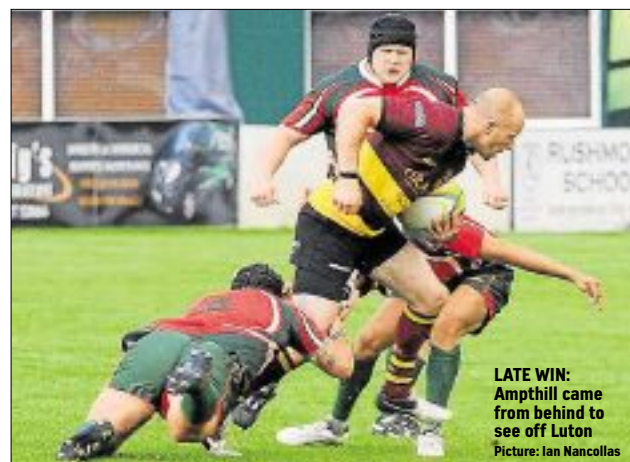

"There were some nerves at the end there, a little bit from us, but we were camped on their line and probably should have finished the game off.

"We haven't come from behind too many times this season, so it's pretty new to us."

Amptihill physio Michael Dwyer also admitted that it was a close thing as the club added the cup to the National 3 Midlands title.

"That was really close," he said. "Luton took it to us and they were strong all the way through, there were some good individual performances, and it seals the double."

Bedfordshire narrowly edged out in MCCA Trophy opener

CRICKET

BY MARC BAZELEY

sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

ALTHOUGH bitterly disappointed to lose to Oxfordshire in the last over at Bicester, Bedfordshire know they are still very much in the chase for a place in the quarter finals of the MCCA Trophy.

Oxfordshire's win, their second by one wicket after defeating Devon in their opening game, means they have four points and head the Group One table.

Next come Cornwall and Hertfordshire with two points while Bedfordshire are ahead of Devon, who have played two games, on run rate.

Bedfordshire are again not in action in the next round of matches which means they will have two games in hand on all their rivals by the time they face Hertfordshire at Harpenden two weeks today and will know exactly what they have to do to qualify.

Their final two games are at home to Cornwall at Cople on Bank Holiday Monday and Devon at Dunstable the following Sunday.

Last Sunday's game at Bicester was a real thriller with the home side snatching victory with two balls to spare after any number of twists and turns.

The mainstay of the Bedfordshire innings was skipper Steve Stubbings and they would have set a much bigger target had he not been dismissed in bizarre fashion when on 93. He lost control of his bat going for a sweep and it flew out of his hands and on to the wicket.

Nevertheless thanks to an aggressive innings of 60 from 61 balls earlier by dual-registered Northamptonshire batsman Rob Keogh and 50 not out from Andy Reynoldson Bedfordshire reached 262-6.

This looked nothing like enough when Richard Kaufman (68) and Lloyd Sabin (80) played the Bedfordshire quicker bowlers to all parts.

As it had done in the Bedfordshire innings though, the introduction of spin changed things round and Oxfordshire slumped from 162-1 to 185-6.

Keogh (3-29), Rawlinson (3-47) and David Foster (1-39) all contributed superb spells and when the eighth Oxfordshire wicket fell on 226, Bedfordshire seemed on the verge of a memorable win.

However, Chad Keegan swung the game back Oxfordshire's way by smashing three sixes and a four in an innings of 27 off 13 balls.

He went with 13 runs still needed but the Oxfordshire last pair edged their side home.

Bedfordshire were without new vice captain George Arblaster due to work commitments, although he should be back for the double header against Hertfordshire and Cornwall.

Stubbings and his side are bidding to reach the knock-out stages of the Trophy for the first time since 2009.

That year they made it to the semi-finals suffering a 97 run defeat to Staffordshire.

Their sole triumph in the competition remains the victory over Cumberland in 1999, and a good run in this year's tournament would provide a huge boost ahead of the start of the Minor Counties Championship on June 9.

OPENING DEFEAT: Steve Stubbings

Scores: Bedfordshire 262-6 (Stubbings 94, Keogh 60, Reynoldson 50 not out). Oxfordshire 266-9

AFC rivals take Senior Cup crown

FOOTBALL

AFC DUNSTABLE missed out on lifting the Bedfordshire Senior Cup as they were beaten 3-0 by county rivals Biggleswade Town.

A bright start was made by AFC at Kenilworth Road, but the Waders took the lead on 17 minutes courtesy of Joel Mason and from that point on were rarely troubled.

Southern League Biggleswade missed a couple of excellent chances to extend their advantage before they eventually doubled their money.

Joe Reynolds broke down the right and floated over a fine cross which was headed home by Brett Donnelly to ensure Spartan outfit AFC were 2-0 down at half-time.

In the second half, AFC's attempts to get back into the game were hindered by a hard working Biggleswade side who didn't allow them any clear cut chances in front of goal.

The game was wrapped up in favour of the Waders with 20 minutes to play when substitute Paul Barnes, who had only been on the pitch for 30 seconds, tucked home their third goal of the game.

Things then went from bad to worse with AFC forced to play out the game with ten men, after Jay Blackett was sent off for an off the ball incident.

Biggleswade added the cup to the promotion they achieved this season.

Midweek league starts up again

CRICKET

BY DAN PALMER

sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

THE Luton and District Midweek Cricket League is back up and running and Luton Pakistanis are the early leaders in the Premier Division.

They got their season up and running with a convincing 85 run win over Luton Majestics, set-up with a first innings score of 158-7 from the allotted 16 overs.

Majestics were bowled out for 73 in response at Lower Wardown Park.

There was also an opening victory for Luton CC who saw off the challenge of Luton United Stars by four wickets.

Stars opted to bat and posted 120-7, but Luton reached the total after 13.5 overs, finishing on 124-6.

Lions CC claimed the scalp of Luton Haiderys by six wickets at Lancaster Avenue.

Sohail Wajid took 4-20 as Haiderys made 103-7 after winning the toss and batting, and Lions reached the target with two overs to spare.

Challney were bowled out for 100 as they failed to get close to the total.

Kashmir Cavaliers beat the Cornered Tigers by 21 runs after they batted first and racked up a total of 127-4.

Tigers managed 106-8 as they fell short of the target.

Hatters line up Gunners friendly

FOOTBALL

LUTON Town have lined up Premier League giants Arsenal for a pre-season friendly at Kenilworth Road.

A Gunners XI will travel to meet John Still's side on August 3, as the manager prepares for his first full campaign at the helm.

The pre-season schedule also includes a home game against Still's old club Dagenham & Redbridge, and matches with a string of non league outfits.

Meanwhile, the club is searching for accommodation for its youth team players and young professionals in and around the local area.

A homely environment, which would provide a player with their own room and access to a bathroom, is needed. They would require breakfast and an evening meal.

Monthly payments and free tickets for certain games are received in return. For more details e-mail paul.driver@lutontown.co.uk.

Hatters 'battered' teams says signed-up Solomon

BY DAN PALMER

sport@lntmedia.co.uk

SOLOMON Taiwo believes that Luton Town 'battered' many of their rivals following his arrival at the club.

The midfielder became the latest player to commit himself to the John Still revolution this week when he penned a new one year deal at Kenilworth Road, and the former Dagenham & Redbridge man said he is impressed with what he has seen since his arrival at the club in January.

Results did not always go the Hatters' way in his nine appearances for Town to date, but Taiwo, who scored a penalty in the 2-2 draw at Cambridge United, feels that a lot of the time Luton were the better side on the pitch.

He has targeted promotion next season now that his future is secure and believes his team have the tools to finally return to the Football League.

"In the games I played in I think we battered teams," said Taiwo.

"I think we battered a lot of teams but we just didn't get the goals and that's what stopped us. If we can convert the chances that hit the post, the chances that hit the bar and the chances that go wide, or at least 50 per cent of them, into the back of the net, then I think we'll have a great chance from what I've seen."

Taiwo, 28, said that he was impressed with the plans that had been presented to him for moving the club forward.

"The progression I think the team is going to make and the club is going to make is good," he said.

"I want to be part of something positive and something successful. I was happy once everything was agreed."

"It comes to a point where you say what are you going to do, how much do you want to progress and what sacrifices do you want to take? What was presented at Luton was more than good enough."

Still was pleased to have another squad member signed up as he plots to resurrect the club's fortunes ahead of a further season in the non-league.

"We'll have a happy and fit Solomon Taiwo next season and given what he's already shown us in performances last season I think there is a lot more to come from him," he said.
